HISTORICAL SKETCH AND REGISTER OF THE DRENNAN FAMILY AND INTER-RELATED GROUPS, WHO THOUGH BEARING DIFFERENT NAMES, HAVE COURSING THROUGH THEIR VEINS TRUE DRENNAN BLOOD.

Compiled by John C. Drennan, Fayetteville, Tenn. January 12, 1933

Comparatively little is definitely and positively known of the Drennan Family, except that they are unquestionably of Scotch-Irish descent. This fact is confirmed by a tradition of long standing in our Family, and is further attested to by Robert Drennan, Grandfather of the writer, who, according to the best information obtainable, was the first one of this ambitious, adventurous Family to set foot on Tennessee soil.

Robert Drennan, and Martha H. Wiley of Long Cane, South Carolina, (near Abbeville), were married about the year 1823. He and his family, which at that time consisted of his wife and two children, Mary C. and John Hamilton, the former aged about four and the latter being a mere baby about one year old, emigrated to Molina, Tennessee, eight miles West of Fayetteville, in 1828. Three children were born to them after their arrival in Tennessee, namely, Louvina, Calvin Washington and James Jefferson Columbus, the latter being the Father of the compiler of this incomplete and fragmentary record.

In 1834 and 1836, six and eight years, respectively, after his arrival in Tennessee, Robert Drennan purchased two farms of approximately 100 acres each, located on the North bank of Elk River, in Lincoln County Tennessee, eight miles South West of Fayetteville and two miles North of Molino. Said two farms adjoin and include what is known as the "Cave Spring". The deeds to said two farms are now in possession of the writer. Here Robert Drennan erected two frame residences, one on the East farm and one on the West, the former is still standing, the latter having been torn down a few years ago.

It was here on the "West" farm that Robert Drennan lived the remainder of his life, taking his departure October the first 1883 having attained to the age of 84 years, 3 Months and 17 days. He was a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity, brave, fearless, patriotic, loyal to his church (Presbyterian) loved, honored and respected, an outstanding leader in his community, a man of wide vision and mature judgment and being possessed of more than an ordinary knowledge of law, was repeatedly and successively elected to the Office of Magistrate in his community.

Direct Lineal Descendants of Robert Drennan and Wife, Martha

Robert Drennan was born June 14, 1799 at Long Cane, S.C. and died October 1, 1883 at Molina, Tenn.

Martha H. Drennan, wife of Robert Drennan, was born in the year 1800, and died August 27, 1878 at Molina, Tennessee. Her Maiden name was Martha H. Wiley, of Long Cane, S.C.

*Elizabeth Drennan Stewart, wife of John Stewart, was a known aunt of Robert Drennan of LCT. She is buried at the Prosperity Cemetery of LCT and her tombstone indicates she was born 1776 in County Down, Ireland and died Oct. 1844. From this connection it is known that the Robert Drennan of Newberry Co., S.C. was grandfather to the Robert Drennan of LCT. It is thought that Robert Drennan whose estate was settled in Abbeville Co., S.C. Jan. 12, 1822, was the father of Robert Drennan of LCT, but more proof is needed.
